BULLETIN NO. 8 FOR YOUR INFORMATION

Office of the

STATE DIRECTOR OF CIVILIAN DEFENSE
California State War Council

State Office Building No.1
Sacramento, 14, California

July 14, 1943

TO: COUNTY AND CITY WAR COUNCILS

FROM: STATE DIRECTOR OF CIVILIAN DEFENSE

SUBJECT: PROTECTIVE REGIONS DIAGRAM AND ORGANIZATION CHART

REFERENCES: (Attached) Senate Bill No. 1 (War Powers Act);
Senate Bill No. 907 (Enabling Act)

(n.b. We strongly urge that you study the above references in connection with the subject material of this bulletin.)

The War Powers Act empowers the Governor, after recommendation by the War Council, to establish Protective Regions within the State, and to appoint Regional Civilian Protection Officers for each. The duties of such officers, as defined within the Act, are:

With the cooperation and assistance of local Defense Corps Commanders and other responsible city and county officers and employees to:

a. Develop regional mutual aid plans for the protection of life and property;

b. Develop and maintain a system of emergency communication so that such mutual aid plans may be carried out during periods of extreme emergency;

c. Recommend adequate standards for the Protective Services.

The Sacramento Headquarters Office is located on the 4th floor of State Office Building No. 1. Telephone: 2-4711 -- Local 2978 or 2979.